THE WASHINGTON POST and TIMES HERALD

Friday, October 15, 1954

Ike Studies Doolittle Report On His Survey of CIA Abroad

BONN, Germany, Oct. 14 Germany alone. Many Ger-Am.—President Eisenhower is mans also are on its payroll. reviewing secret operations of the United States Central Inreport from aviation hero be modified. James H. Doolittle, an author-James H. Doolittle, an author-ftative source disclosed here have been the future restrictonight.

Doolittle made a hush-hush visit to West Germany in September, conferring with intelli-gence officers who direct thou-sands of United States paid agents in cold war activities in-ant general who served under lowed the Western allies to re-Eisenhower in North Africa tain certain security powers and on the Western front, Doo- after the end of the occupalittle was the President's personal nominee for the CIA survey.

It is assumed here that one of the questions explored by Doolittle was whether the CIA's super-size staff abroad could be pared down without crippling its essential security functions. About 1000 Americans are employed by CIA in telligence Agency in Europe whether undercover operations on the basis of a confidential behind the Iron Curtain should tions that will be clamped on CIA by the grant of sover-eignty to West Germany.

The Bonn peace contract, signed in 1952 but scuttled in side the Soviet bloc.

A retired Air Force lieuten- (EDC) Treaty, would have al-